The LP, titled "Bowie," features songs that Visconti had recorded with the ailing singer, including a cover of the Beatles' "Across the Universe." Today, Visconti has announced plans to tour behind the album, following his performance with Bowie as the last of Bowie's "scary three" shows at London's Roundhouse. Visconti will be joined by drummer Clem Burke, guitarist Richard Frayling, and an electronic ensemble known as the London Philharmonic Orchestra. Bowie's previously announced music at the Roundhouse will be a cover of "Sorrow," the track that the ailing star had performed for the last time on
